Medford — It would seem like a meteoric rise for International Hair Artist and Greater Boston Salon owner Naz Kupelian. With his recent runway styling in London, New York and Miami, and being asked to head up the styling for the New England Emmy's; however, it's been a long road to becoming one of Boston's most sought after hair stylists.

Now the Medford resident charges on... being asked to this year's 2010 Sundance Film Festival as part of the styling team for the A-list Celeb's on the red carpet and beyond.

"It's been a good year...what can I say? And it's an honor to be asked to attend Sundance and be part of the entire team, maybe it's not location, location, location...maybe talent finds a way to poke its head out considering our team is some of the most talented people in the world and they don't all have salons on Rodeo Drive, 5th Ave or yes...even Newbury Street," said Kupelian.

Naz, an immigrant to this country some 20+ years ago worked days and nights to hone his craft and now runs a successful upscale salon in Lexington. As part of the elite creative team for Rusk® and CONAIR®, Kupelian is currently styling celebrities with the latest trends for hair coloring, cutting and styling techniques developed by the RUSK® creative design team.

The Sundance Film Festival is taking place in Park City, Utah, now through Jan. 31.
